TIN PLATE FACTS

Welsh Mills Closed and Many Makers Quitting Business.

IT IS DUE TO THE M'KINLEY BILL.

Manufacturers from Wales Looking for Sites for Tin Plate Mills in the United States .-- They Itidicule Democratic Statements-Interview with One of Them.

Pirrsnungii, PA., May 18.—The Dispatch has the following interview, which is tull of meat: The Democrats who imagine that the tin plate industry in the United States is a fake, should talk to W. Bright, David Owen and George II. White, of Swansea, Wales, who are now stopping at the Monongahela House. Mr. Owen sold out his tin plate establishment when the McKinley bill was passed. Mr. Bright still owns bill was passed. Mr. Bright still owns his works, but he is anxious to soll, and both gentlomen have been casting around in the states for sites, with the view of locating here.

"I am a Democrat," said Mr. Owen, "and nothing would please me better than to see the tariif removed. We could then stay in Wales, and make tin plate as of yore. No Democrat, however, can convince me that a tariff is not the best thing for this country. It shuts us out completely, and we must come over here to compete, or go out of the business. The only thing that grieves me is that I am a married man, and it is not pleasant to move from one's nais not pleasant to move from one's na-tive soil to a new land. It is ridicu-lous to say the Americans can't make tin plate. Rome wasn't built in a day, and I must say that great progress has been made in the business since the duty was put on.

AN INDORSEMENT FOR AMERICAN TIN.
"I have been in Chicago, St. Louis,

Henderson, and to-day I visited the plant at Demmler. They are making plant at Demmier. They are making tin plate there very satisfactorily. Of course, the product may not be finished as well as the Welsh, but your people will learn by experience. It is only a question of time until the American tin plate will be as good as ours. The Niedringhaus Bros. have a good plant in St. Louis, but for my part, I prefer the works at Demmier.

Niedrinchaus Bros. have a good plant in St. Louis, but for my part, I prefer the works at Demmler.

"Over in Wales business is very bad. Nine tin plate plants are closed in Swansea alone. Wherever you go in the country you will find them shut down, or only working half time. Even the tinning business has been greatly injured by the McKinley bill. Black plates are imported from Wales and tinned here. This work used to be done on the other side. The shipments of the finished product have fallen off, and the Democrats who claim that as much tin plate is imported as formerly don't know what they are talking about. The Americans have not been successful so far in making cold chilled rolls. It may be because your steel is a little softer than ours, or possibly your people don't understand the process, but in time they will overcome these difficulties. The tariff on black plates is only about half as much as on tin plate, so that this gives our rollers a little chance to still send plates to the United States.

"I am not afraid that the tin plate tariff will be removed. Why, in the last thirty years not one of the duties last thirty years not one of the duties have been repealed. The duty of ten shillings on tin plate is more than enough to offset the low wages paid in Wales. Then fuel in this country is cheap. In Pittsburgh you have coal, oil and gas, three strings to pull on. I think oil and gas are better for making tin plate than coal. In St. Louis I found coal was very cheap. We pay twice the price in Wales. How then is it possible for us under the circumstances to compete with manufacturers here? The low wages of Wales will not make up the difference. There is nothmake up the difference. There is nothing left for us to do but come to the United States. I am thinking of going into business in this country. If I do into business in this country. If I do I would select a site in Chicago. I think that city is the center of the world. The people here must have a little patience and give the manufacturers a chance. There isn't anything that can't be made in this land. You have all kinds of machinery, plenty of capital and skilled mechanics. I wish it were otherwise, but it is so. America was our tin plate market, but now it is closed against us." it is closed against us.

For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. GRANTED HER DIVORCE. The Famous Crase Case Rushed Through WATERTOWN, S. D., May 18,-The famous Crane divorce suit of Alice Beverely Crane, of New York, against Walter H. Crane, of London, has been rushed through and Judge Andrews is expected to issue a decree to-day. The case was a peculiar and very sensitional one. Both parties are scions of very wealthy families and are consins. According to Mrs. Cruno's story her cousin took her for a cab drive one day in London and while in the vehicle he drew a revolver and told her he would kill her on the spot if she did not marry him. She says she was too much frightened to either consent or demur, but that he ordered the cabman to drive to a church, where they were married with a license he had procured. The next day he was called to New York and she did not see him again in three years. She told her story to her mother in 1991 and an unsuccessful attempt to secure an annulment of the marriage expected to issue a decree to-day. The secure an annulment of the marriage was made in the London courts. Mrs. Crane came to South Dakota hat No-vember and in February filed a suit for divorce.

Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He says: "Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver or clean the stomach like this remedy. I know of scores and scores who have been helped or cured by it."

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient,

"I am very much pleased with Cham-berlain's Cough Remedy," says H. M. Bangs, the druggist at Chataworth, Ill. The grip requires precisely the same the grip requires precisely in same treatment as a very severe cold, for which this remedy is so efficient. It will promptly loosen a cold-and relieve the lungs, soon effecting a permanent cure, while most other medicines in common use for colds only give temporary relief. 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists.
